

SUPPORT IN AFRICA

Secure your implementation Projects

Do you want to develop your business in Africa ?

Exco Africa has quality experts to assist you with your project development ; exports, external growth and international mergers and acquisitions.

Our Offer

Exco Africa knows the African market perfectly and our experts can assist you with your project, starting with the development of your market research studies through to your business planning and finally, to implementation and operation. With you at every step of the way, our network can help you with all legal and accounting matters plus the management of all your human resources in accordance with social obligations for local and expatriated staff.

Our approach :

Preliminary studies

- Establishing a strategic development plan in Africa.
- Profitability Analysis.
- Legal, tax and customs studies.
- Studies on transport and insurance.
- Connection with local partners.
- Installation logistics.

The Constitution

- Legal and tax aspects.
- Establishment of companies or subsidiaries.
- Fiscal domiciliation

The assistance

- Accounting.
- Tax declarations
- Legal Secretariat.
- Periodic reporting.
- Detachment procedures.
- Intra-group transfers

Your benefits

- We are a network of African audit and accounting firms that share a common methodology, working to international quality standards and pooling our skills and resources to better meet your needs.

- Exco Africa can help you to simplify procedures and reduce multiple conventions therefore saving you time and money.

contact:

chema.kedous@excoafrique.com